LADIES ATTEND IN FORCE

PALMETTO PARK MANAGEMENT ENTERTAINS LARGEST GATHERING OF THE SEASON.

Inconsistent Lady Lightning Wins Handicap in Close Finish with Coppertown—Track Still in Bad Shape, but Racing Is Keenly Contested.

Charleston, S. C., March 24.—The biggest gathering of ladies that has witnessed the racing at Palmetto Park on any one day this season took advantage of the mild weather prevailing this afternoon and enjoyed the sport as guests of the association. Close finishes, again ruled, that in the handicap at five and a half furlongs being particularly so. Lady Lightning just lasted in a thrilling drive to win by a nose from Coppertown. The latter was best, and with a more experienced rider up, would have won. The Bedwell connections seemingly considered Lady Lightning in the nature of a "good thing," for she was backed in confident fashion. She has been one of the most consistent racers of the meeting, but ran impressively this afternoon.

The difficult going which still prevailed caused numerous withdrawals, but the fields were evenly balanced. Favorites fared poorly, but this did not help the layers much, for all the winners were abundantly supported. Huda's Brother was the easiest winner during the day. He won as his rider pleased, with Dick's Pet and Colors in closest attendance. Raleigh P. D. was suited by the going in the second race and held Willis, his most persistent opponent, safe throughout. L. M. Eckert led for most of the way in the third and got home a head in advance of Benedictina. Jabot outgamed the weakly-handled Sonny Boy in the fifth and Jacob Bunn just managed to last long enough to get to the finish in advance of Joe Stein in the closing dash.

Among those who will transfer their stables to Kentucky next Monday on the special train are J. S. Ward, H. McCoulsky, E. W. Moore, W. A. Kirwan, J. T. Nichols, Raleigh Colston and J. W. Johnson. These consignments will go direct to Lexington to await the opening of racing there. E. B. Parsons, W. H. Fry, L. T. Fambour, Marion and R. P. Dodson will ship to Louisville. The big string owned by R. F. Carman will be shipped to Lexington by express April 3.

After Jacob Bunn's victory he was bid up from an entered price of $800 to $1,200 and retained. Tom Shaw did the bidding.

Jockey Overt signed this afternoon to ride for Francis J. Pons during the Norfolk meeting.

The W. H. Baker stable was shipped to Louisville this morning.

The horse, Dr. Jackson, that Todd left at Palmetto Park when he shipped the rest of his stable to Venezuela, died yesterday.

A. E. House has purchased the old sprinter Berkeley from H. G. Bedwell and will race him over the half mile tracks in Canada.

A telegram from R. J. Allison to C. D. Stevens announced that the meeting at Tulsa would begin April 13.

The mare Lou Lanier, which won a race here on March 17, has been disqualified on a protest that she was ineligible. The condition of the race stipulated that it was for non-winners this year, and as Lou Lanier had won a purse at the Orlando, Fla., fair in February, she was barred from the right to participate.

There was an improvement in track conditions at Palmetto Park this morning and a large number of horses were out for work. Among the trials were:

MONTREAL HORSES IN TRAINING.

Montreal, Que., March 24.—Alan Bulcroft, the most successful of local trainers during the last racing season, is already preparing a shifty string of horses for this season's campaign. Bulcroft has under his care horses owned by Sir H. Montague Allan, A. E. Ogilvie, Norman Macfarlane and H. A. Ekers. The string numbers fourteen in all. The horses have all wintered well and have not shown any signs of sickness since going into winter quarters. Among the horses in training are a number of eligibles for the Provincial Nursery, for two-year-olds, and the King's Plate for three-year-olds and over.

Sir H. Montague Allan will hold a strong hand again this season in both the Nursery and Plate races. For the Plate race he will have Irish Heart, which won the Nursery during the fall of 1912 and finished second to Planover last autumn, when the Plate was run in record time. Irish King, which started in the Nursery last autumn, is the only Plater, while Heartless III. is the eligible for the Nursery. Irish King has developed wonderfully well and is a promising-looking three-year-old. Heartless III. is of the larger type of two-year-olds and before going into winter quarters last fall showed a good burst of speed. Heartless III. is a half-sister to Irish Heart, being by Dublin—Sans Coeur.

The horses owned by the Inverreck Stable, under Bulcroft's care, include Herruana, a three-year-old purchased from the stable of Hugh Paton after her race in the Nursery last fall and a two-year-old that is eligible for this year's Nursery. Herruana has grown into a good-looking three-year-old with plenty of bone and substance. She has speed and gives promise of carrying her name to victory in some of the events for province-breds this season. The two-year-old is by Floral King—Mamie Land. He is a good-looking youngster with a fair turn of speed.

The Ogilvie horses are all three-year-olds and eligibles for the Plate. They are all the get of Dublin, while Lingar is a half-sister to Sandy, the winner of the Nursery last season, being out of Gargle. Irish Pride ran second in that event and Dublin Girl the other was third. These horses have filled out and will be held for the Plate, although under the conditions of that event, they are allowed to start in other events for province-breds.

In the Macfarlane string there are Cliff Stream, a five-year-old, The Spirit, a three-year-old and Lady Spendthrift. The latter is a province-bred two-year-old and will be held for the Nursery. Cliff Stream looks well and is even now doing work on

WHAT FIVE YEARS OF FAR WESTERN RACING YIELDED FOR LADY PANCHITA

A good daughter of Ogden that has for several years past comported herself worthily in racing, over the far western and southwestern tracks, is the brown mare, Lady Panchita. Since breaking into racing in 1909 she has been given a strenuous career and shown herself to be gifted with a wonderfully good constitution from the way she has thrived in it. Last year, for the first time in her racing, she won enough money to secure a place in the list of thirty best winners of the year. Most of her racing has been over tracks where values were small and it was not until she was six years old that she had a chance to reap an adequate reward for her many displays of speed. Last year she had a chance in stake races and it was due to the fact that she won the Dos Republicas Stakes at Juarez, Idaho Quickstep Handicap at Coeur d'Alene, Butte Handicap at Butte and the Iroquois, Exposition and Farnius handicaps at Vancouver that she gained a place in the select list of the thirty chief winners of 1913. It is also to be noted that she won more money last year than in her previous four years of racing combined, apparently improving with age, as did the gelding, Donald Macdonald, of eastern fame. Gifted with fine speed, most of her racing has been confined to sprinting distances, but she stays well enough when called on, her victory in the Butte Handicap being at a mile and an eighth. Inspection of her pedigree would seem to indicate that she should be competent to cover any reasonable racing distance when properly trained for the ordeal.

Lady Panchita ran her first race at Salt Lake City, Utah, May 22, 1909, and was an unplaced 60 to 1 outsider in a half-mile dash won in 50½ by Minnedocia. She ran several races there before winning. Her first success occurred June 22 in another half-mile dash, in which she defeated King of Yolo, Quickly and four more two-year-olds in 51. She then ran as the property of Matt Foster and was trained by Fred Foster of Dr. Rice and Sulloss fame. She has had various other owners since then. In the course of that year's racing she started in thirty-four races, of which she only won four and evidently was not a precocious two-year-old. She improved and did better as a three-year-old. Her first race at that age came off on the first day on which she could claim it, taking place at Juarez, January 1, 1910. Better still, it was a victory, she defeating Dave Montgomery, Delf and five more at three-quarters of a mile in 1:14½. Then, after running third to Charlie Hargrave and Rustem in 1:12½ and second to Charlie Hargrave in 1:13, beaten a nose, she took another race. This was on January 15, when, at five and a half furlongs run in 1:07½, she defeated Nita, Mike Modett and seven more opponents and won by four lengths. January 22 she ran three-quarters in 1:13½ and won from Good Intent by a length and a half, with Genova third and five others unplaced. In her next and last race at Juarez she was unplaced and was then taken to Oakland. There she was twice beaten before winning, but was placed in both races. March 2 she defeated Dr. Dougherty, Slik and five others over the Futurity course in 1:12, and on March 10 won again, this time at three-quarters of a mile in 1:14, with Redem second, Roy Junior third and six unplaced. Then she encountered a streak of non-success and did not win again until April 25, when she ran three-quarters in 1:13½, and won easily from Adena, Billy Meyer and four more. This was followed by three reverses, but on May 9 she covered the Futurity course in 1:10½, and defeated Salvage, Darington and three others. That was her last success at that Oakland meeting. Her next victory was at her old stamping ground, Salt Lake City. There, on June 15, she ran three-quarters in 1:14½ and won from Godfather, Lena Lech and four more. She only won one more race that year and that was at the same track, July 8, when, at the same distance and in the same time, she defeated Marchmont, Lena Lech and six other useful sprinters.

As a four-year-old in 1911 Lady Panchita was not raced much in comparison with the year before, probably because she was ailing in some way. However, she paid her way by winning three races—five and a half furlongs in 1:07½, at Juarez, March 22; three-quarters of a mile at Juarez, March 30, in 1:12½, and three-quarters at Ogden, May 13, in 1:16½. She was in good condition in 1912 and was first, second or third in twenty-one of her thirty-two races. Her first victory was at Coeur d'Alene, June 15, when she defeated Oxy, Tommy McGee and seven others at three-quarters over a muddy track in 1:15½. At Salt Lake City, July 15, she ran three-quarters in 1:12½, and defeated Righteas, Enfield, Prince Ahmed and two lesser lights. July 22, at the same track and distance, she won from Kootenay, Gough Hill, Seth and Dr. Dougherty in such fine time as 1:11½. At Butte, August 12, she ran the same distance in 1:12½, and won from Spohn, Kootenay and three more, and at the same track, September 2, ran five-eighths of a mile in 58½, and defeated Tern's Trick, Three Links and two more, making a new track record. At the Lagoon track, October 17, she ran three-quarters in 1:12½, and won from Meadow, Bert Getty and three more fast ones. Her last winning race of the year was at the same track, November 5, when, in deep going, she defeated Pay Streak, Elmetta Hamilton and two more, at five-eighths of a mile in 1:03½.

Last year Lady Panchita was in better form than ever before and, besides the stake races already enumerated, won nine purse races, in addition to which she took second place seven times and was third in six races. Her campaign for the year began at Juarez. There, in contesting eleven races, she won two purses besides the Dos Republicas Stakes and was second or third in four more. The Dos Republicas was a dash of seven-eighths of a mile over a heavy track. This she won by three lengths in 1:30, with Enfield second, Irish Gentleman third and Kootenay, Vested Rights, Dutch Rock, Upright and El Palomar unplaced. Her last race at Juarez was on March 15, and in this, at the same track and distance, she ran fourth to Kootenay, Irish Gentleman and Lackrose, the four finishing in a bunch half lengths apart. Then she was taken north to Coeur d'Alene. There she ran second three times before winning. May 7 she defeated Mona Canonmum, Platinum, Elizabeth Harwood and Pride of Lismore at five-eighths of a mile in 1:00½, and followed this up on May 10 by winning from Seneca, Imprint, Parlor Boy and Meadow at five and a half furlongs in 1:07½. Three defeats followed and on June 10 she won at seven-eighths of a mile from Manasseh, Hadad, John Louis and Melts in 1:25½, and made a new track record. June 28 she won the Idaho Quickstep Handicap at five-eighths of a mile. She carried 115 pounds and, running the distance in 1:00½, defeated Kootenay, 110, Ciepat, 102 and Orange Blossom, 106. At Butte she won a purse race July 10, and took another July 22. Then on July 26 she won the Butte Handicap at a mile and an eighth. Jack Paine was the favorite for this race, but Lady Panchita won by three lengths in 1:54½ over a heavy track, with Harry Launder second and Bert Getty third, four running unplaced. After winning another purse race at Butte she was taken to Vancouver. There, after three defeats, she won the Iroquois Handicap at a mile in 1:39½ with 114 pounds up, with Ch. Ron second, Voladay Jr., third and seven others unplaced. This good race was run August 23. On August 28 she won the Exposition Handicap at three-quarters in 1:12½, with Manasseh second and Seneca third, and on September 16 took up 116 pounds and won the Farnius Handicap at a mile and seventy yards in 1:48½, over a heavy track, Gaty Pallen finishing second and Manasseh third. Her last race of the year took place September 10. It was a three-quarters dash over a heavy track and, carrying 121 pounds, she won easily from Americans, 108 pounds, in 1:15½. Dangerous March, 116 pounds was third and three ran unplaced. Then she was given a rest for the remainder of the year and her record to the end of 1913 and pedigree are as follows:

| Year. | Age. | Sts. | 1st. | 2nd. | 3rd. | Unp. | Won. |

the roads. The Spirit won on the American tracks last season as a two-year-old and should do even better this season. Lady Spendthrift is by Masterman—Lady Irish.

Wickson, owned by H. A. Ekers, which was the sensation of the steeplechasers during the autumn of 1912 and had a successful season last year along with Jim Jitsu, are the others in the stable. Wickson will be liberally entered in the stakes to be run through the field next summer as a year ago. Alan Bulcroft will likely give up active training this summer, as he has leased the farm of Charles S. Campbell on the Llesse road, where he will winter horses and pasture them during the summer months. Bulcroft has already made arrangements to take care of a number of locally-owned broodmares and their foals. He now has Sans Coeur in his care. This mare is due to foal this month to the well-known horse Athol.

Owing to ill health, James Love, who for years has not only raced a stable of horses, but has trained horses for other owners, will retire from an active part in racing. His horses will be sold in April. The horses now owned in the Love stable number five in all, two of them, Song Bird and Sacai, being eligible for the King's Plate race next autumn. The horses have been given steady work on the roads all winter and are fit and ready for the spring training, which will commence within a short time. The other horses in the string are Oakley, Frigid and Cheer Up.

WOULD IMPOSE HIGH FEE

BILL PROPOSED TO TAX MARYLAND RACE TRACKS $3,000 PER DAY.

Matter of Racing Regulation Still Hanging Fire in Maryland Legislature, but Expected to Come to an Issue Soon.

Baltimore, Md., March 24.—The Hall anti-race track betting bill is expected to come up in the House of Delegates at Annapolis late tonight. It should have come up this afternoon, but was not reached before a recess was taken.

It is the understanding that Delegate Hall will seek to amend it by making the penalty for violation more severe, while Delegate Hoffman, of Washington County, will offer an amendment in the shape of a new bill which will provide for a state racing commission and will fix the license fee for mile tracks at $3,000 per day. At this rate the three tracks in Maryland would yield the state about $250,000 a year. This bill represents the views of the Pimlico people.

The racing in connection with county fairs is to be exempted from paying this high license fee. A hot fight over the bill is expected.

DID NOT THINK MUCH OF ROADMASTER.

Louisville, Ky., March 24.—T. H. Ryan, of Wilmington, Ill., is among the horsemen coming here from Juarez. Among his horses is Roadmaster, which never faced the barrier until this season, as a four-year-old at Juarez, and has won both of his starts to date. It is said that when Ryan received Roadmaster and several other horses from his farm in Illinois early in the Juarez season that they appeared to be such unpromising prospects for racing that upon learning that an agent of General Villa was paying as high as $150 for cavalry horses, he sent for him to come to his stable and pick out any one of his hand, or the whole lot for that matter.

Roadmaster is a grand-looking individual, with a development not unlike Old Rosebud. He never left the Ryan farm until the past winter, and was not even thoroughly broken until last fall, when a three-year-old. His sire, The Roman, a son of Brutus, won the Wheeler Handicap at Washington Park, Chicago in 1900, and when a three-year-old ran second to Ruinart in the Burns Handicap, beating Salvation and other performers of merit. The owner of Roadmaster has figured in some wonderful turf coups during a long career on the turf. One of his biggest strikes was back in the days when Washington Park, Chicago, flourished as a racing plant of magnitude, and the medium was a mare named Rival, which won in his colors at odds of 100 to 1. At that time over 100 books were in the betting ring at that course, but so strong was the public play that even the large amount of money Ryan and his friends bet on Rival did not cause her price to go lower in many books than 40 or 50 to 1. It had the effect of opening the bookmakers eyes to the fact that Ryan was a trainer who would hear with care, and even to this day all layers have a marked respect for any horse the Illinois trainers sends to the post for the first time.

SOLID CITIZENS AT THE HELM.

Ottawa, Ont., March 24.—The work of completing the beautification of Connaught Park will be resumed just as soon as the snow is off the ground and by the date of the opening of the spring meeting on June 16, everything will be at its best. Ottawa is now a valuable link in the Canadian Racing Associations chain of tracks.

The following is the list of honorary and active officers for 1914, there being a few changes from last summer when the Connaught Park Jockey Club got away to a splendid start:

Honorary president, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught; president, H. B. McGivern; advisory board, Rt. Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, K. C. M. C.; Sir Frederick Borden, K. C. M. G.; W. H. Rowley, J. P.; Alexander MacLaren, C. Jackson Booth, A. W. Harris, D. V. S., Thomas Ahearn, J. de St. Denis Lemoine, T. C. Bate, J. A. Seybold, Hon. Sam Hughes, A. Turner, F. A. Gendron and T. Babin; board of directors, Hal B. McGivern, Fred W. Carling, Lt.-Col. W. Woods, Hon. N. C. P. C., T. Franklin Ahearn, L. N. Bate, Stewart, McClenaghan, Crawford Ross, G. E. Fauquier, W. H. TRAINERS GETTING BUSY AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., March 24.—The weather being bright and the earth dry, the main track at the Kentucky Association grounds was opened to horses in training this morning, and a large number were at exercise. Quarters in 24½, three-eighths in 38 and halves in 54 was the average rate of speed.

L. H. Adair, of Adair & Baker, arrived this morning from Charleston and has had a stable prepared for their string which is expected from the South Carolina track tomorrow, including Burs and Princeton, which are here in the stable of Gallaher Bros., they will have twelve horses, among the number being High Private, Sleeth, Samuel R. Meyer, Ambition and Roscoe Goose.

Jefferson Livingston's string of twenty-six, in charge of trainer Mose Goldblatt, is due here from Juarez next Friday.

JAMAICA DATES TO BE TRANSFERRED.

New York, March 24.—Owing to the fact that a portion of the roof of the Jamaica grandstand was seriously damaged in the recent stormy weather it has been decided that the racing dates awarded to the Metropolitan Jockey Club will be run off at one of the other courses. This club was awarded racing time from June 15 to June 25, and if it is finally decided not to hold the meeting at Jamaica the dates may be divided between other tracks. It is thought that Aqueduct and Yonkers will be awarded the days each to take up the time. In any event, the program will be carried out as originally announced, whether or not Jamaica opens its gates.

EXODUS FROM JUAREZ IS ON.

El Paso, Tex., March 24.—The shipment of horses from Juarez to other racing centers began today. The big stable of Jefferson Livingston occupied two express cars that left this morning for Kentucky. This afternoon Eugene Elrod's special train departed for the same destination. It carried about a dozen carloads of horses, and numerous owners, jockeys and followers of the sport. Tomorrow will bring the departure of a special train carrying the horses, owners, trainers and jockeys who will participate in the proposed meeting at Tulsa, Okla.

NOTES OF THE TURF IN OTHER LANDS.

Santley is the name given to his majesty's colt by Santy—Sweet Allison.

H. G. H. the jockey, who has passed the winter at Chantilly, will shortly return to Russia, where M. L. Mantascheff has first call on his services.

The New York Bar, in Paris, which was the property of Milton Henry, the jockey, has been bought by Ted Sloan, and will in future be known as Ted Sloan's Bar. It is situated in the Rue Danton.

M. A. Amont has entered Saint Pe for the Grand Prix International and the Prix du Ceneaire de Borodino, to be decided at Moscow in September. This is the only French entry for these two valuable stakes.

The three-year-old colt by Broomstick—Rose of Dawn has been sold to Tom Hill, the Belgian trainer, who has also acquired from Gwilt's stable at Lambourn the aged gelding Washington, by Kinley Mac—Systematic.

Count Geza Andassy has engaged "Danny" Maher to ride Hadd Lassak in the Austrian Derby. Maher has already ridden thrice in that event. He was second on Avenue in 1909, third on Lord Freiband in 1910 and second last year with Mosci Ksiazec.

Sam Heapy, the nephew of Sam Lontes, is now thoroughly established as a trainer in Belgium. He has over sixty horses under his care at Wavre, twenty of them being two-year-olds. Heapy can still go to scale at 123 pounds, and will ride occasionally in important races.

The death occurred Friday, March 6, after a short illness of Baron Alfred d'Aumery, who in his day was one of the most prominent gentlemen riders on the French turf. His chief successes were attained at La Croix-de-Bernay, where he rode Baron Pinot's representatives.

News recently reached England that the good stallion Ridge of Canny has died at the Haras Chacabura in the Argentine. This is a serious loss indeed for his owner, who bought him through Mr. D. Mann a year or two back. As the sire of Cantilever, Bridge of Canny will gain still further posthumous fame, but his place in South America will be difficult to fill.

On the first day of the National Hunt meeting at Cheltenham, England, March 11, the Cheltenham Grand Annual Steeplechase of the net value of $2,560 was won by "Mr. Stokes," five-year-old brown mare Meadow-sweet, by Yankee—Campo. She carried 150 pounds and won easily from the favorite Tanbury, which carried 154. Of her last six races, Meadow-sweet has won four and been second in the other two.
